King George Sixth Takes Oath to Empire Subjects

LONDON, May 13.—Deeply impressive demonstrations of loyalty and affection by massed crowds outside the gates of Buckingham Palace Wednesday night closed the public celebration of the Empire's greatest spectacle—the crowning of her King and Queen.

Newly consecrated to the service of the Empire, King George VI. and Queen Elizabeth four times appeared on the palace balcony as cheering throngs would not permit them to retire.

The first appearance of the night—they had already appeared during the afternoon shortly after returning from the Abbey—was not long after the sovereign made his first speech to his 400,000,000 subjects throughout the world.

THE KING'S MESSAGE TO THE EMPIRE

"The Queen and I will always keep in our hearts the inspiration of this day," he said, as the radio carried his voice to the corners of the earth. "May we ever be worthy of the good will which I am proud to think surrounds us at the outset of my reign. I thank you from my heart and may God bless you."

He had just returned from historic Westminster Abbey, where the Archbishop of Canterbury crowned him and his Queen in the name of the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth.

The changing picture of Empire was incorporated into the new oath:

"Will you solemnly promise and swear to govern the peoples of Great Britain, Ireland, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the Union of South Africa, of your possessions and other territories to any of them belonging or pertaining, and of your Empire of India, according to their respective laws and customs?" the oath asked, placing the final stamp on the full equality of the Dominions and making George VI. the King of each of them.

Public Meeting in Church Hall Monday Poorly Attended

Plan Under Which Proposed Community Hospital Would Be Built Outlined by Town Officials; Many Questions Asked

The development of the plans for the proposed community hospital in Lacombe were traced through by Mayor E. H. Jones at a public meeting of representatives of the Town of Lacombe held in the Church Hall on Monday. The meeting was poorly attended.

Mayor Jones made it quite clear that all questions as to site, size, etc., of the proposed building could not be answered by the present investigating committee. He pointed out that these decisions rested solely with the permanent hospital board when and if appointed. Should this plan go through, Mayor Jones stated that any suggestions regarding the details of the building would no doubt be received by the hospital board to be appointed, and the final decision would rest with them.

G. T. Jackson, representing the present hospital board, stated "the time has arrived when something must be done for larger and better equipped hospital facilities."

Outlines Legal Aspects
J. S. McCormick, solicitor for the Town of Lacombe, gave a brief outline of the legal and financial aspects of the proposed project, all of which has been published in these columns at various times. Mr. McCormick made it quite evident that indigent cases of both the Town of Lacombe and the Municipal District of Crown would be paid for by the councils as has been done in the past.

A few questions were asked towards the end of the meeting, some of the most important being:

Q.—L. Douglas: What majority is necessary to carry the hospital by-law in the Town?

A.—J. S. McCormick: 66.2-3% of

Bad Hailstorm Kills Four Young Turkeys

A bad hail storm hit the district about 10 miles north of Lacombe on Tuesday night last between 5 and 6 o'clock, when several inches of hail fell. On the farm of F. A. Taylor, four young turkeys were killed by the hailstones. Apparently the storm was local and took a small strip across the countryside.

Lacombe Golfers Win Over Stettler

The season's first inter-club golf match, which was played over the beautiful Lacombe course on Sunday, May 9th, between members of the Stettler Golf Club and those of the Lacombe Golf and Country Club, was favored by ideal weather conditions. After many hard-fought battles were completed, it was found that the local golfers were on the long end, winning by a score of 18½ points to 10½ points.

Probably the highlight of the day was the performance of C. L. Willis, veteran ace of Stettler, who finished with a medal score of 71 strokes, one under par, which is very hot golf for the tricky Lacombe course. The following is a complete summary of the matches:

Large Overflow Crowd Hears Fine Program by Loudspeaker; Colorful Parade Attracts Hundreds of Spectators Along Route

Gaily decorated with flags and bunting, Lacombe presented a gala appearance yesterday (Wednesday), when the Town and District royally celebrated the Coronation of King George the Fifth and Queen Elizabeth. It was freely admitted that never in the history of the Town was a larger or more colorful procession formed, or more colorful arrangements made. Ideal weather prevailed throughout the day, adding much to the enjoyment of the celebration. Close on 1200 children took part in the procession, which was almost a mile long, the children marching in groups from their respective schools and school districts, each wearing a colorful patriotic hat, followed by beautiful floats, with the fire brigade bringing up the rear with gaily decorated trucks.

All these combined to present a sight never to be forgotten by the hundreds of spectators who lined the route. All the schools were preceded by nicely decorated banners identifying their particular school, and the costumes worn by some were outstanding in their novelty and appearance, the children from Gull Lake school especially making a big hit with the spectators.

King's Speech Broadcast

At 12 noon the King's speech was broadcast by loudspeaker equipment at the football grounds and it came over clearly to a large crowd which had gathered to hear it. Altogether, 20 schools were represented in the parade, 18 of which were rural schools, the students of the Canadian Junior College and the Lacombe Public and High school comprising the balance.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the Lacombe and District Band, with Marshal Reg Wilks in front, led the parade. From the Lacombe school grounds, followed in order by two decorated cars containing the speakers at the Pavilion. These were followed in order by the Boy Scouts and Cubs under Scoutmaster Edgington, the C.G.I.T. girls, the Lacombe Public and High school pupils, decorated bicycles, and the students of the Canadian Junior College.

This part of the procession proceeded down Stanley St. to the corner of the football grounds, where the following rural school pupils joined in:

Central, Eclipse, Eureka, Gull Lake, Jones Valley, Lakeside, Lincoln, Milton, Mountain Grove, Pleasant Hill, Progressive, Saline, Spring Valley, Spruceville, Sunny Crest, Turville and Woody Nook, followed by the loudspeaker, providing march music.

Parade Through Town
Entering Hamilton Ave., the parade proceeded to the corner of Nanton St., where the decorated floats and fire brigade joined in, continuing to the Royal Bank corner, turning west on Barnett Ave. to the Gull Lake road intersection and then turning south on the main highway to the entrance to the Pavilion. Here the procession halted to view the floats, which passed on the north entrance to the Pavilion. The band then played the school children into the Pavilion, where they were ushered to their seats.

Parade Crowded
Fully 1500 children and adults were crowded into the Pavilion, and an overflow of over 1000 listened to the program outside the Pavilion, broadcast by the loud speaker.

Gaily decorated, the Pavilion presented a wonderful sight when the children with their rally colored hats were seated. With Chairman Mayor E. H. Jones officiating, the program, which took the following order, was concluded in 50 minutes, the speakers confining their remarks to five-minute addresses:

The Program
Opening, "O Canada." Prayer, Rev. W. E. Herbert. Hymn, "O God Our Help in Ages Past." Address, Mayor E. H. Jones. Address, Dr. Bruce MacMillan, M.L.A.

Patriotic song, "The Maple Leaf Forever." Address, Rev. W. E. Herbert. Address, Rev. R. B. Layton.

Scouts Give First Aid Treatment

First aid was readily available to all those who needed it at the Lacombe Exhibition grounds on Coronation Day, when the local Boy Scout troop set up a temporary First Aid Tent right on the grounds.

Although, fortunately, no serious injuries were incurred by anyone, several cuts, bruises and scratches were attended to by the Scouts.

Evidence showed the boy had been mixing with bad company and Mr. Campbell asked that leniency be shown.

Bentley C. G. I. T. Groups Hostesses At Banquet

Over Forty Present As Mothers and Guests Assemble; Mrs. Colpitts Is Guest Speaker

(From Our Bentley Correspondent)

BENTLEY.—Covers were laid for forty at the Bentley club rooms on Friday evening, when the C.G.I.T. group were hostesses to their mothers and guests.

Taking the subject, "Sailing on Life's Sea," as their theme, the tables were tastefully decorated with crepe paper, tulle, nets and anchors, augmented by fish program holders, and the place cards were miniature life belts as napkin rings, all in white and blue, the C.G.I.T. colors.

Following the banquet, which was served by Miss Elsie Skodopole and Mesdames J. B. McPherson and F. Marshall, the address of welcome was given by Mrs. C. A. Warren.

Toast to the Mothers
The toast to the mothers was proposed by Miss Mildred Skeels, to which Mrs. C. A. Trumble replied. She said that Mrs. Warren had referred to the mothers as the captain of the ship and she felt the proper place for the daughter to receive most of the training and help to make her a successful captain was given by Mrs. C. A. Warren.

Mrs. Glen Wright proposed the toast to the girls and Miss Olive Trumble replied.

Mrs. Wright thought the purpose and motto were good and felt that the girls were fortunate in having such a splendid club, and, as C.G.I.T. girls, they are as sailors in training under their mothers as captains.

To Make Life Worth While
Miss Trumble, in replying said while and felt they should be considerate of their mothers' wishes and realize their interest in the girls (Continued On Page Three)

Youth, Hid In Store, Arrested For Stealing

Investigations carried on by the local police to ascertain the reason why A. M. Campbell's Department Store was found unlocked in the early hours of Sunday, April 25th last, was solved last Monday, May 10th, when the Town police arrested Allan Rowland of the Elkhorn district.

Checking up the stock after the occurrence, it was discovered that about 30 boxes of 22 cal. rifle shells were missing, and with this clue the police started their investigation, with the result that Rowland made a clean breast of the theft, admitted stealing the shells and gave a signed statement to that effect. From all accounts the accused hid himself in the coal bin in the basement prior to the store being locked up for the night, and apparently waited until the staff had departed before helping himself to the shells, letting himself out in the early morning hours. Nothing else in the store was missing.

The accused was tried before Magistrate E. H. Jones on Tuesday, May 12th, and pleaded guilty. He was given suspended sentence of two years, the magistrate remarking that as this was his first offence he hoped it would be a lesson to him. Rowland will have to report to the magistrate each month.

Evidence showed the boy had been mixing with bad company and Mr. Campbell asked that leniency be shown.

SUNNY CREST.—The Sunbeams surprised Miss Betty Saunders last Thursday at ten and a jolly supper was served. It was the occasion of her birthday.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Ingg left last week for a motor trip to the United States, where they expect to visit for a month.

Rev. B. A. Prescott of Red Deer delivered the Mothers' Day sermon at Sunny Crest last Sunday, and those in the program travelled by car to West Branch, where the service was repeated. Rev. Prescott was ably assisted by Mr. Buckner and the Northern Bible College.

Rev. Prescott has consented to a request to return next Sunday and will take the services at Sunny Crest at 10:30 a.m., and at West Branch at 3:30 p.m.

Meets A Real Broncho
Forrest Barr met with a bit of tough horsehide as he was riding his horse behind the harrows. On the second occasion, Forrest Barr

Hold Celebration For 80th Birthday

RIMBEY.—Mrs. P. A. Erickson of the Lockhart district, south of Rimbey, celebrated her 80th birthday recently by entertaining members of her family and her neighbors at a birthday party. was riding with eggs to his brother's home when the horse became unruly and he had to drop the eggs. He finally landed rather hard and had to be taken to the hospital to ascertain if any injuries were sustained. It was not long since Forrest underwent an operation, so we hope he was not seriously hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fisher plan on going to Banff and Lake Louise by motor very shortly.

She: "Doesn't it make you rather timid to walk down this dark path?" He: "Of course not. Don't you remember last year at the carnival, when I won the 100-yard dash?"

Local Livestock Business Summarized for 1936-37

Horned Cattle Reduce Price $1.00 Per Head; Eastern Horse Sale Buyers Lose Heavily

Livestock business for the year 1936-37 shows, on the whole, increased activity, according to a report obtained by the Western Globe, governing local conditions. The summary appears as follows:

Cattle.—Supplies of grain-fed cattle are nearing an end, with satisfactory prices for cattle due to a shortage on all Canadian markets. Mostly all well finished cattle are going to American markets. The future depends on crop conditions.

The price differential on cattle not dehorned is now in effect, and a reduction of $1.00 per head is made.

Sheep.—Lamb feeders made money this year, with grain-fed lambs selling at from 7 to 9 cents per pound.

Swine.—Hogs have been very disappointing on account of the high cost of grain. Heavy runs are reported on all markets, with much better prospects in view for another year.

Horses.—Tractors are selling rapidly this Spring and this has had an adverse effect on the horse markets. The Lacombe Horse Sale was as usual an outstanding event, with buyers purchasing on the possibilities of a future market. Cattle of horses bought at the sale were held for months after the sale at Lacombe and met bad trade in the East, showing heavy losses to the buyers.

Montreal reports horses are off at least $25 per head, with very slow demand and feeding costs high.

MOROCCO IMPORTING CANADIAN WHEAT
France, as a general rule, imports her requirements of durum wheat from her North African colonies—Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia—but on the present reduced production Morocco has not enough wheat for its own needs and has imported so far about 45,000 tons of Canadian amber durum. Tunisia is also facing a deficiency, and it is estimated that durum wheat imports from Canada so far have amounted to 7,000 tons, in addition to wheat brought to Tunisia from the adjoining colony of Algeria.

Each section of the league will play its league games and the winners of each section then take part in the play-off at the conclusion of the league.

CLIVE.—Farmers in the district have welcomed several nice showers during the past week and hope it augurs for more rain in the near future.

Rev. G. A. Kettys of the United Church held a joint Mothers' Day and Coronation Day service on Sunday evening. Appropriate music was rendered by the choir. Mrs. Kettys and Alice Morrill also sang solos. The church was nicely decorated with flowers and flags for the occasion. A good crowd attended. There were several mothers at Sunday School in the morning. The attendance is reaching the sixties.

The Clive L.O.O.F. Lodge will hold its anniversary service at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 16th, in the United Church. Everybody welcome.

Miss Vieda Kocher spent the week-end in Edmonton.

Lacombe Takes on Gala Coronation Appearance

Store windows and the fronts of different business places around the town took on a festive appearance this week in the patriotic colors of red, white and blue which were displayed. Pictures of their Majesties the King and Queen all pointed towards individual recognition of the epoch making event which took place in London, the heart of the British Empire, yesterday, when the official Coronation of King George VI. was celebrated.

Of special interest, perhaps, is the flag displayed in F. E. McLeod's window. Of enormous size, the flag shows the British lion on a background of white, with the blue cross of St. George. This flag is reputed to be the one flown at the head of the warship on which the late King Edward VII. journeyed to Canada at the time he was the Prince of Wales. Shortly after his trip to this country he ascended the throne upon the death of the great Queen Victoria.

Rimbey Child is Victim of Fire

RIMBEY.—Plucked from the flames by his heroic mother, the six-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Langmaid died in Rimbey hospital from serious burns as a result of a fire which destroyed the Langmaid home, 11 miles southeast of Rimbey, last Friday afternoon.

The infant suffered from burns to the face, legs and stomach and succumbed to his injuries Saturday. He was snatched from his burning crib by his mother a few minutes after the fire broke out.

Blankets Afire
Mrs. Langmaid was working in her garden when flames spouted suddenly from the residence. The flames and smoke were pouring from doors and windows as she made her way to the baby's crib, picked him up and rushed outside. His blankets were afire as she did so.

The infant was brought to Rimbey hospital. Two other children, aged two and four years, were outside when the fire took place. Mr. Langmaid was working at a farm a mile distant. The family is making its home with friends in Rimbey. The residence was completely destroyed, together with all contents. No insurance was carried.

Suitable Shrubs for Lacombe District

Since the Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, was established in 1907 it has conducted a great deal of work in horticulture, testing a large number of trees, shrubs, vines, tree and bush fruits, flowers and vegetables. The following summary presents in as brief a way as possible the results recorded while supervising these experiments.

Since the Lacombe Station's work in horticulture is purely experimental, it has no stock of these varieties for distribution. However, this material may be secured from almost any of the nursery companies in Alberta.

The trees and shrubs mentioned below are classified under the soils which have been found most suitable.

Softball League Is Re-Organized

The Softball League has been reorganized to admit a team from the Experimental Farm. All games played during the week are to be played on the football field on Lacombe school. Games for Sunday are to be played at the Experimental Farm; first Sunday game to start at 2 o'clock with the second starting at 3 o'clock.

History of Present Local Hospital Outlined

Mrs. Wm. Burris, Sr., First Started Action for Hospital in Lacombe; Hospital Board Instituted in Year 1907

In view of the action now under way toward the erection of a new Community Hospital in Lacombe, it is believed that the following brief history of the present hospital will be of general interest.

Like many good projects, it was born of the vision and active perseverance of one person, and had its beginning in a small way, but because of the efforts of unselfish and community minded citizens, who took an active interest, and the service the hospital rendered to the district, its growth, slow at first, gradually developed into the finely equipped and efficiently staffed public institution which serves the people today.

When Mrs. Wm. Burris, Sr., arrived in Lacombe some thirty years ago, she was amazed at the lack of hospital facilities. At that time private hospitals were being operated by one or two women.

Collected Funds for Hospital

A woman of foresight, and possessed of a conviction that something should be done, and with courage to carry out that conviction, Mrs. Burris immediately took steps to interest the business men of the town in the project of establishing a hospital. She collected sums both large and small—no sum, however small, was insignificant, and very few subscriptions exceeded $5, and when finally a sufficient amount had been gathered to make a small beginning, a Hospital Board consisting of Henry M. Trimble, W. N. Morrison, Andrew Urethart, Everett K. Strathby, Wm. F. Puffer, John McKenty, Wm. Burris, Sr., Wm. J. Simpson and Edward M. Sharpe (three directors to be changed every year) was incorporated. This board was constituted by the provincial government by special act in the year 1907, and a building erected as quickly as possible.

By arrangement under the act, the Provincial Government agreed to pay to the board 50¢ per patient per day, which was supposed to cover the cost of caring for indigent patients, but of late years the number of these increased to such an extent that it was found necessary to ask municipalities to pay for their non-paying patients, in addition to the government fee, but this latter fee made it possible to give lower hospital rates.

Continued Her Support

With the realization of her vision and the initial project well under way, Mrs. Burris then stepped out of the picture as far as the management of the hospital was concerned, leaving this to the board of nine men, but she continued collecting, instituting tag days and various other devices for the purpose of raising funds to keep up the equipment.

For a number of years the entire control and management of the hospital was left with the matron to make what she could out of it, and during the period preceding 1922 the hospital went through trying times financially.

On April 15th, 1921, three women were elected to the Board of Directors, so that the personnel of the board then included Dr. E. M. Sharpe, A. M. Campbell, J. Fraser, Dr. W. T. Hynes, C. B. Halpin, D. F. Chisholm, Mrs. W. N. Morrison, Mrs. Angus MacDonald and Mrs. James Gourlay. Within a year Mrs. MacDonald and Mrs. Gourlay resigned and Mrs. E. L. Misenar and Mrs. John Gilmour were chosen to fill these vacancies.

Board Took Control

About this time the matron who was in charge resigned, and the Board of Directors initiated new arrangements whereby the board took over complete control of the management. Miss R. Copp, or Lloydminster, was engaged as matron in June, 1921, but remained only until October of the same year, when the directors were very fortunate in being able to secure the services of Miss Ethel L. Damon (now Mrs. Alan D. MacDonald), as matron, and with her splendid and efficient co-operation, the hospital was re-established on a firm footing and many improvements made.

Board members, of whom Mrs. Jesse Fraser carries special mention, and other interested workers, approached various women's organizations, soliciting aid to re-equip the hospital. Women of Lacombe and women's organizations from nearly every district rallied round; 157 persons were enrolled as members of the Lacombe General Hospital, paying the required membership fee of $2.00.

In April, 1922, the board first considered making additions to the building and Mrs. E. L. Misenar was appointed to write an editorial for the Western Globe, outlining their plans and soliciting donations, which brought a hearty response. Many new improvements were effected; a new kitchen was built, bathrooms installed and the equipment replenished, this work being completed by the end of 1922. During the summer of 1923, purchases were added to the building.

Nurses' Home Built

The enlargement of hospital facilities necessitated an increase in the number of graduate nurses who were caring for the patients, and the next consideration of the board was the erection of a Nurses' Home, which was built and nicely furnished during the summer of 1925. The women on the board then instituted a Women's Hospital Aid, which functioned for many years, raising funds for equipment, and making up and maintaining linen supplies. In later years, as the financial condition of the hospital improved, this service was less needed and was discontinued. From the inception of the first board until the year 1923, when A. D. MacDonald was appointed to the office, all sacrificial work was done gratis by Jesse Fraser.

Mrs. Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, principal benefactor in the Corporation fund.

In 1928 Miss Damon resigned her marriage to Mr. MacDonald taking place on March 7th and she was followed by Miss Elsie Osborne, who came well recommended, and who held this post until the first of this year, when she returned to her home in England, and her place was taken by Miss Margaret Maloney, formerly of Calgary.

New Equipment Installed

Last year a new furnace and automatic stoker were installed, which added to the convenience of the building, and several new beds, bedding and linen were also purchased. In July of last year, A. D. MacDonald resigned as secretary, and this office is again filled by Jesse Fraser. The board is now composed of the following directors: A. M. Campbell, Dr. W. T. Hynes, Dr. E. M. Sharpe, Mrs. W. N. Morrison, Mrs. John Gilmour, Mrs. G. J. Doherty, F. E. McLeod, G. T. Jackson, and J. Fraser. Others who served on the board during past years are D. Calder and Mrs. D. Cameron.

The building, surrounded by grounds which have been planted to trees, shrubs and flowers, adding their contribution of beauty to its value, includes two large private wards at rate of $4 per day, three small private wards at $3.50 per day, two semi-private wards, holding a total of four beds and one child's cot, at $3 per day; one public women's ward which holds four beds, at $2.50 per day, and basins for babies at 50¢ per day.

Cost Per Patient

In 1935 the cost per patient per day was $2.74 and in 1936 the cost was $3.20, an average over the years of $3 per patient per day.

In the light of these facts, it is interesting to note what approximately two-thirds of the revenue is derived from the private wards, as shown by the following figures:

In 1935 there were in private wards 100 patients for 829 days, at an average of $3.75 per day.

In the semi-private wards, seven patients for 95 days, at $3 per day.

In the public wards, 346 patients for 1670 days, at $2.50 per day.

In the bassinets, 94 babies for 720 days, at 50¢ per day.

For many years now the Lacombe Hospital has given careful and efficient service to the people of Lacombe and district, but the need has been felt for some time of a larger and better equipped hospital building, and it would seem that with the same unity of spirit and purpose shown in former days toward the institution of the present hospital, the materialization of the plans now under way may be accomplished to the undoubted benefit of all.

Funeral of Mrs. Carmichael Well Attended

Much sympathy is felt in the community for Rev. W. P. Carmichael, whose wife passed away early on Thursday morning following a short illness. Mrs. Carmichael (nee MacMaude Smith) was in her 90th year and was born of English parentage at Oliver, Iowa.

Left an orphan at a very early age, she came to the Lacombe district in 1902 with her grandparents, who settled on a farm in the Macleod district, northwest of the town. In 1903 she married Rev. W. P. Carmichael.

Funeral services were held from the Free Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon, the ceremony being conducted by Rev. S. Arnett. Pallbearers were D. Attell, P. Brevik, D. L. Perkins, Albert Nelson, M. B. Chisholm and J. James.

She is survived by her husband and five children, Paul, 18 years; David, 15; Fern, 13; Donald, 4, and Muriel, 16 months; one sister, Mrs. Herman Froling, residing near Lethbridge, and her grandmother, Mrs. M. M. Streich of Alta, Alta.

MAYOR JONES ADDRESSES W.I.

Mrs. Wm. Teward, president of the local branch, which met at the home of Mrs. S. Mutch on Saturday, was elected to be a representative to the Women's Institute convention which is to be held in Calgary May 24th to 26th. Members decided to do the catering for a concert and dance sponsored by Jack MacDonald at Spruceville on May 21st.

A letter from Dr. G. M. Little, of the Red Deer Health Clinic, was read, advocating sun baths to build up resistance against disease.

Importance of Wills

Mayor E. H. Jones, barrister, in a clear and concise address, spoke on the question of wills, and the especial importance of this matter to women.

A will, he said, is very different to any other legal document, in that it does not come into effect until the death of the maker, but it is not a forerunner of sudden death, as was at one time commonly thought. He described different types of wills, the conditions required to make a will valid, and the advantage of having a will made while the individual was in sound mental and physical health.

Mr. Jones urged that wives discuss the question with their husbands, even though he realized that there was a certain delicacy between husbands and wives in regard to discussing the making of a will.

Points to be Considered

The speaker believed that at least one-half of the husband's earnings are due to his wife, and sacrifice of the wife, and that this fact should be taken into consideration when the husband makes his will. Mr. Jones was tendered a hearty vote of thanks at the conclusion of his address.

was not from antagonism to their wishes but was because of their deep love for them and hopes for their success in life, as conveyed by a poem, which she read to the daughters.

The toast to the church, proposed by Miss Alice Fields, was answered by Rev. E. A. Warren, who referred to the church as a lighthouse whose beams would guide them to shore, which meant their Heavenly Father. These talks were followed by several songs and the C.G.I.T. hymn.

Mrs. Colpitts Speaks

Mrs. Beth Colpitts, Wetaskiwin, was the guest speaker. Her address was on the same theme but from a somewhat different angle. She told the girls they were sailing the sea of life and they must heed the advice of the captains and look out for the dangers of the sea.

In loading their ships they must make their cargo worth while and not overburden themselves with pride, conceit, prejudice, selfishness, idleness and keeping bad company.

Miss Margaret Pringle presided. Miss Twiss of Wetaskiwin was an out-of-town guest.

BENTLEY.—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Eversden and Bob and the Misses Lily Gyor and Marie Marchildon motored to Calgary on Tuesday to attend the graduation exercises of the nurses' class of 1937 at the General hospital, of which Miss Edna Eversden was a member. Friends of Miss Edna have (and there are many of them) will be glad to know of her success and wish her good luck in her profession.

George Sparks and Miss Ruth Willis were down from Ponoka on Tuesday, visitors at Miss Willis's home here.

Mrs. H. Dickan left Saturday in company with her sister, Mrs. Hepburn of Ponoka, for California, in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of her father, Mr. Webster.

Ladies' Aid Meeting

Messdames H. Garries and J. Patrick were hostesses to the Bentley United Church Ladies' Aid at Mrs. Garrie's home on Thursday afternoon last, when plans for work of the society were discussed and committees appointed for the various activities. A chapter of the book, "In the Steps of the Master," which is being read and studied, was taken up. Following business, lunch was served by the hostesses.

GRACE MOORE AT AVALON

Hollywood's glamorous songstress, lovely Grace Moore, displaying unexpected talents as a gay comedienne and master of modern "swing" rhythm, scores a thrilling triumph in her latest Columbia picture, "When You're in Love," playing at the Avalon Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Versatile Grace Moore sings—and sings equally well—opera arias, including Franz Schubert's beloved Serenade, new tunes by Jerome Kern and Dorothy Fields, Ernesto Lecuona's rhythmic "Siboney," Mag-pari, "In the Gloaming," and last but far from least, Cab Caloway's "Minnie the Moocher."

Robert Riskin wrote an entertaining plot for the picture he chose for his debut as a director. A Grace Moore-Cary Grant romance of the type Claudette Colbert and Clark Gable made famous in the same Robert Riskin's "It Happened One Night," vies with thrilling music in the picture in entertainment value.

"It must be hard to keep time on this ship."

"How is that?"

At all Christian Science churches next Sunday, the subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Mortals and Immortals." The following is one of the Scriptural quotations contained in the Lesson-Sermon: "Now we know that God heareth not sinners; but if any man may be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth" (John 9:31). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, is as follows (page 478): "Learn this, O mortal, and earnestly seek the spiritual status of man, which is outside of all material selfishness."

The World of Wheat
By E. G. L. STRANGE
Director, "Crop Testing Plan"

A great scarcity of wheat exists—the world is short 500 million bushels of wheat for its consumptive needs!

Such are the types of newspaper headlines that have appeared in recent months. They afford to most people a satisfactory reason to explain why the price bounded up from $1.00 last fall to $1.50 recently.

During the last three weeks, however, the price has fallen some 20 cents a bushel. Many are wondering why this should be if there really exists such a deficiency of wheat in the world as the newspaper headlines indicate.

The answer is that the headlines have given us entirely the wrong impression. There is no scarcity of wheat in the world, as most people understand the word "scarcity." The truth is simply that the supplies available for overseas export are scarcer than usual, but are far from being actually deficient.

The average world carry-over, on August 1st each year, is about 600 million bushels. On August 1st next the carry-over will be scarcer than this, but will still be about 500 million bushels, which, of course, is a lot of wheat. The United States will have about 100 million and Canada some 40 million still left on hand.

Following factors have tended to raise prices: British increases estimated import requirements; More rain needed in Southern Hemisphere; small wheat crop expected in Spain; Heavy rain and high temperature causes rank growth in the Yangtze Valley, China; Decided decrease in Argentine shipments; Expect below average wheat and barley production in Iraq.

Following factors have tended to lower prices: Indian wheat estimate 30 million bushels above last year; U.S. private estimate spring wheat acreage increased two million acres; U.S. winter wheat estimates high; some rains received in Argentina; increase in 1936 production of German hops.

Ex-Kaiser William of Germany has resided at Doorn, Holland, since the year 1920.

OIL INDUSTRY HEAVILY TAXED
There are more than 200 types of taxes in North America imposed on the oil industry.

Several of them are collected on every operation of the business from setting up equipment in the oil fields to selling gasoline and lubricating oil at the filling station. Every product and by-product from crude oil as it comes out of the ground to highly refined gasoline, fuel oil and lubricants, is taxed.

Producers of crude oil and natural gas, for example, pay taxes on crude oil and natural gas produced, oil withdrawn from storage, sales of oil and gas lands, as well as severance taxes, royalties, proration taxes, anti-pollution taxes, well drilling permit fees, and derrick taxes. Refiners pay taxes on refined products. Pipe line companies pay property taxes on their pipe lines, as well as valorem taxes on the crude they transport, and a big variety of other levies.

Marketing companies and service stations pay taxes on the different products they sell. It is a series of tax levies that perhaps no other industry can show in the total a huge burden, paid by the industry and users of its products.

Sport-Scope

By JACK MCGAUGHERY

The University of B.C. Thunderbirds brought another trophy to the West on Saturday night. The men basketball team from Vancouver defeated the last-year champion Windsor Fords in the series, three games to one, to bring the cup to Vancouver. It is the second time in five years that the B.C. University squad has triumphed in the final, as their team of 1932 also captured Dominion honors.

Even though Fred Perry and Ellsworth Vines have played almost 50 matches, neither player knows which is the better. At least they won't admit it. "I think there is a conspiracy to keep us from finding out," said Mr. Perry. "We've played more than 45 matches, and I know Vines' game like the back of my hand and he knows mine, but we do not seem to be able to prove anything one way or another."

When they're cornered each will admit that the other is the better player, but this is just courtesy. Most people would like to see both Mr. Perry and Mr. Vines both forget about the other's feelings and stand their ground, such as big Will Tilden does. When Mr. Tilden thinks he is better than his opponent he makes sure to state himself, with plenty of vigor. And so do many other players.

According to John Lardner, their matches are non too interesting. Both players know the other so well that they could stage a game in the dark. However, from the standpoint of the spectators who snore with whole-hearted content (says Mr. Lardner), it would be much nicer sleeping.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...? Casey Stengel still roots for the Dodgers. Why shouldn't he? he gets $15,000 a season for it! Sing Sing will add another major sport to its list. Hockey will be played next winter, as well as baseball, basketball and football.

Election at Early DateConsensus of Opinion Among Political Observers in Edmonton That Premier Will Find It Impossible to Carry On

By T. B. WINDROSS
EDMONTON.—That an election
nobody wants only is the general opinion in Edmonton, according to political commentators here. Everything seems to point to a vote for the purpose of clearing up the present confusing situation in the legislature.
One experienced observer in the capital predicted that Premier Aberhart would find it impossible to carry on at the head of a government

so divided when the legislature re-opens on June 7th. But another declared it as his opinion that the Social Credit "Activists" would not drive things far enough to compel the Lieutenant-Governor to pro-vogue the House and call for an election. This observer declared it his opinion that the "Activists" will be well satisfied if they can force Premier Aberhart out of the leadership and name another Social Credit to take his place.

The controversy between the Premier and former members of his cabinet has taken on a new phase
with the retirement of Hon. W. N.
Chant from the ministry of agriculture.
That the Premier has one more critic to contend with now was shown when Mr. Chant published his statement of defence during the week. The former minister denied his administration of the Department of Agriculture had been either inefficient or unresponsive.
Grave charges against the Premier were included in Mr. Chant's statement, among them that he had refused to accede to the Premier's demand that several tried and capable members of the civil service should be dismissed. Mr. Chant declared he had refused to accede to the Premier's demand because to do so would be an injustice to tried and honorable civil servants.

Following Mr. Chant's forcible, or compulsory, ejection by Order-in-Council from the cabinet, D. B.
Mullen was sworn in as minister,
and color is given to Mr. Chant's charges by the retirement a few days later of S. G. Carlisle, livestock commissioner for 22 years in the department. It is true, however, that Mr. Carlisle had reached the age for superannuation and the explanation published by Mr. Mullen for his retirement was that "he was being retired on superannuation pay."

Mr. Carlisle is a brother of Professor Carlisle, who has managed the EP Ranch at High River since it was first acquired by H.R.H. the Duke of Windsor. He is a capable and widely experienced livestock expert and has been responsible for much advantageous advancement in the

No word has been received yet from Glen MacLachlan, M.L.A., as to his success or failure in persuading Major C. H. Douglas to come to Alberta and guide the government in implementing Social Credit. Mr.
MacLachlan has been in London
now for some days and word is expected from him at an early date.

LINCOLN.—The Juniors report

was a great success.

We are all very sorry to hear of the big loss which Fred Morish

A very enjoyable evening was

The Ladies' Club held its meeting

A very pleasant evening was spent

Schoolboy Howlers

A national government is one where all parties forget themselves.
Henry VIII. found walking difficult because he had an abcess on his knee.

A circle is a line running around a dot forever.

The Romans built their roads straight so that the Britons could not hide behind corners.

A sewer is a male goose.

A V.I.P. means "Real silver wedding present."

The Royal Mint is the stuff the king puts on his coat lap.

The future of "the drinks" is "he is drunk."

Moses is the leader of the Black-shirts.

They could not grow wheat in Egypt, so they irrigated it.

The strength of the British constitution lies in the fact that the Lords and Commons give each other mutual checks.

So as not to get malaria when they go abroad, wise people get indicated before they leave England's shores.

There are strong indications that the government's budget, over which the insurgent criticism of the government began in the legislature during the session recently, has not been materially altered for presentation to the session when it reconvenes on June 7th. There has not been time to make any vital changes and Hon. Solon Low has been away part of the time since the adjournment in Ottawa.

Should there not be some change
in the taxation details of the budget when it reappears, there is likely to be storm blowing on the floor of the House again. One commentator near to the government declared that the Premier thinks his position is now strong enough to be able him to force the fiscal measure
through the House despite opposition.
But insurgent members are still strong in declaring they will wreck the cabinet, but not the party, if any attempt is made to foist a non-Social Credit budget on them.

And there the matter rests for the present, with the split still gaping open in the party ranks and nobody able to clearly predict what the conclusion of the matter will be.

"GONE WITH THE WIND"

By Margaret Mitchell

I HAVE just finished reading the above book, and to those who have not yet had that pleasure, let me say that they have a rare treat in store. Personally I think it is the outstanding book of the last decade for adult readers, and certainly the most comprehensive and interesting story of life in the old South before, during and after the American Civil War.

It would be futile to attempt a review of this thousand-page book in any reasonable space, but it will probably be sufficient to say that Margaret Mitchell's book has given us a fine insight into the Civil War,
and some splendid characters.

The author, a leading character,
Scarlett O'Hara, bears quite a resemblance to Becky Sharpe of "Vanity Fair," but Scarlett is just a little cuter, meaner and more self-centered than our friend Becky. In Rhett Butler, self-confessed all-around rogue, Miss Mitchell presents an entirely new type, and one you are bound to admire for his outspoken manner and his outbursts
of sound advice to Scarlett.

Many years ago I strolled through one of the National cemeteries, that of Chattanooga, Tennessee, wherein lie buried 14,000 soldiers of the Civil War, but it has taken this splendid book to bring home to me the sufferings endured by those who sleep amidst the stately oaks in that quiet spot, and the sufferings of those who were left behind to "tote the weary load" after the grim struggle.

However, the book is not without
its faults—the author, for instance,
has left us all in doubt as to what
finally became of Scarlett and Rhett,
the principal characters. Nevertheless, it is a book which will probably be enjoyed by all who read it,
and you'll find a copy in the Lacombe Public Library.

Minor Injuries Need
First Aid Care

The need for first aid equipment
in the home, to be dramatized throughout the country during First Aid Week, May 16-22, is emphasized
by the fact that the number of fatal burns in the kitchen and fatal falls in the bedroom rise to statistical heights, and the living room endures the dubious distinction of being a close second in both kinds of accidents.

Many women consider burns an inevitable part of their daily experience in the kitchen. Foolishly many women neglect them only to discover later they have a troublesome or dangerous infection to deal with.

An ample supply of simple, effective remedies for burns should be kept in the medicine cabinet of every well ordered home. Children, who are often injured when there is no
adult around to administer first aid, should be taught to help themselves with the aid of convenient first aid materials.

More falls occur in the bedroom
than in any other part of the house.
Many a toe has been broken by stumbling over a bedroom rug, or chair. Everyone should know how to adjust a spill and apply a bandage while a doctor is on the way.

Q.—B. McKenzie: Is the site of the proposed hospital picked, or will
the new hospital board select it?

A.—J. S. McCormick: The matter is entirely up to the new board, if and when appointed.

Q.—Paul Brevik: Would it be possible to have the site of the hospital voted on at the same time as the
by-law comes up for a vote?

A.—J. S. McCormick: No.

Q.—Mrs. Ray Saunders: Will hospital rates be the same in the new hospital as in the present one.

A.—J. S. McCormick: As the hospital board is not yet appointed, and as they will set the rate, it is impossible to state definitely what the rates will be.

Q.—D. S. Thompson: What will
the ultimate cost of the hospital be,
including interest.

A.—Mayor E. H. Jones: Debentures will be issued in the amount of $30,000 at interest of 5% for 15 years—a total of approximately $45,000.

ONE OF THESE DAYS
HE'LL BE LOOKING FOR A JOB

In 1936 Canadian Automobile Manufacturers spent over sixty million dollars in Canada in payment for purchases of materials and parts — and for service, including transportation. When you purchase a motor car or motor truck that is manufactured in Canada you are contributing directly to the employment of Canadians, and to the service of Canadian transportation systems.

For statistical and further information about this industry, write to Automotive
Industries, 1006 Canadian Building, Toronto.

HE'S stretching up, that young man of yours. One of these days he'll be into his first pair of long trousers. Before you know it, he'll be one of the group of young Canadians who must be provided with jobs. And won't you be proud home his first week's earnings?

It's fortunate for our young men
that industry is fast expanding in Canada, for growing industries mean more jobs and opportunities. Canadian Automobile Manufacturers at the present time employ over 18,000 men and women, and in the hundreds of other Canadian industries
from whom they purchase raw materials, parts and supplies, an even greater number are securing their livelihood.

Increased employment means increased Canadian payrolls — more money to be spent for food, clothing, furniture, for the needs and comforts of life. And the production of these motor cars and trucks provides more employment, and a greater demand for the products of farm and factory, forest, sea and mine.

The continued growth of the automotive industry will promote prosperity throughout Canada, and provide more wealth for Canadians in all walks of life.

However, the book is not without
its faults—the author, for instance,
has left us all in doubt as to what
finally became of Scarlett and Rhett,
the principal characters. Neverthe-
less, it is a book which will probably be enjoyed by all who read it,
